Filling Curriculum Gaps
Support instruction with Leading Edge Learning:
Competency-Based Modules
Engaging Content is a Must

+ Traditional academic programs that are transitioning to online must have engaging, relevant instructional content.
+ Simply reading material is not sufficient for today’s learners.
The Learning Process

+ Learners do best when they can readily apply what they are learning through online interaction to cement new knowledge.

+ Using online components as homework assignments can significantly enhance in-person professional development programs so that in-person time can be focused more on application and shared learning.
Design & Layout Best Practices

+ Activities are scaffolded effectively (introduction, practice, and application)
+ Content is logical, consistent, and uncluttered.
+ Large blocks of information are divided into manageable sections.
Best Practices for Content & Activities

+ Access to a variety of engaging resources that foster collaboration, deliver content, and support learning.
+ Opportunities for students to practice critical reflection and analysis.
+ A balance of text, video, audio, and images is present.
Leading Edge Learning

A collection of online modules that can be mixed & matched to support the development of 8 key workplace competencies.
NACE – Career Readiness Competencies

Critical Thinking / Problem Solving

Graduates must demonstrate critical thinking and problem solving by gathering and interpreting relevant information to devise solutions.

Oral / Written Communication

Effective employees can articulate thoughts and ideas clearly for different types of audiences.

Teamwork / Collaboration

Graduates must function as part of a team and build collaborative relationships with people from diverse backgrounds.

Digital Technology

Employees should be able to use digital technology ethically and efficiently to solve problems and achieve goals.

Leadership

Employees should be emerging leaders, leveraging others’ strengths to achieve common goals.

Professionalism / Work Ethic

Solid work ethic and time management are hallmarks of a good employee.

Career Management

Knowing one’s strengths and advocating for career goals helps employees be successful in the workplace.

Global / Intercultural Fluency

Successful employees will value diversity and demonstrate inclusivity and openness toward others.
Promote learning with a variety of media

Modules come in various forms:

• Simulations
• Micro-case studies
• Dynamic lessons comprising informative text, video, sound clips, activities, and quizzes.

Pick and choose the solutions that will work best for your classroom. All modules can be easily integrated into your LMS.
Enhance the Student Experience

Modules come in a wide range of sizes ranging from 2 to 135 learner hours, depending on the specific topic. The assortment of media, type, and size ensures that faculty can easily incorporate modules within courses. This enhances the student experience and saves faculty time on developing content, so they have the time needed for deliberate student engagement.
Customized Solutions

+ There are more than 55 unique modules that could be used in a variety of situations to create customized solutions that help you fill curriculum gaps as needed.

+ These modules can be used individually or in course packs to provide the required educational experience for many unique situations.
Business & Business-Related Curriculum
